

Searching for films

- Go to lib.unb.ca.
- Search UNB WorldCat for films by title, author (writer or director), or subject/keyword.
- Limit “Format” in the left hand column of search results to available “Video” options (eVideo, DVD, VHS, etc.).

The screenshot shows the search results page for 'Falstaff in Shakespeare and Verdi'. The page displays 'Results 1-10 of about 218 (.39 seconds)'. The first result is 'Falstaff in Shakespeare and Verdi' by William Shakespeare; Giuseppe Verdi; Creative Arts Television (Firm); eVideo: Clipart/Images/Graphics. The second result is 'A performance of Macbeth' by William Shakespeare; Verity Lambert; Trevor Nunn; Philip Casson; Guy Woolfenden; Ian McKellen; Judi Dench; John Brown; Susan Dury; Judith Harte; Greg Hicks; David Howey; Griffith Jones; Marie Kean; Ian McDiarmid; Bob Peck; Duncan Preston; Roger Rees; Zak Taylor; Stephen Warner; John Woodvine; Thames Television, Ltd.; A & E Home Video (Firm); FremantleMedia.; New Video Group.; Royal Shakespeare Company.; DVD video: Secondary (senior high) school. The left sidebar shows the 'Format' filter with 'Video (218)' selected, and sub-options for 'eVideo (173)', 'DVD (43)', and 'VHS (13)'. A red circle highlights the 'Video (218)' option and its sub-options. The main content area shows the details for the first result, including the title, author, language, publisher, and database. A red circle highlights the availability information for the first result, which states '1 of 1 available' and lists the location as 'Harriet Irving Library (Fredericton) HIL-CIRAV: Audiovisual Collection, 1st Floor' with the call number 'PR2823 .A23 C37 2004'. The page also shows the start of the third result, 'The Shakespeare engine'.