

the new settlements where you may judge
it advisable.

As it may hereafter be necessary to erect works for the defence of some of the new settlements now forming in Nova Scotia, I recommend it to you to make application to the Governor for a reservation of such lands as may be judged proper for that purpose, for the security of the province in general, as well as for the erection of such buildings and Store houses, as are necessary thereto.

You will please to order the usual bounty of Two hundred days Ration, Baggage, and Forage money, to be issued to such of the German troops as are embarked, and to such of them as may hereafter embark from your district.

I am, Sir,

your most obedient and
most humble servant

Guy Carleton
