42. But I flatter myself that the time is not far distant when I shall be gratified in this first wish of my heart. —

Among the most persevering solicitors — which I have met with is your old townsmen, Fellow Passenger Friend,
Thomas Edwards Esq.
As regularly as the day comes — comes Thomas Edwards — and he always prefaces his application by telling me what a wonderful affection he has for you, and the phil-dren — and then he hopes the Colonel will order him Cloaths, Shoes, Provision, Blankets, Medicines &c.

&c. &c. I have this morning sat down by him with a pencil, and have taken down the several articles which he requests, and I have told him that I would give him an order to receive every one of them
