

Of all the Batches which he, & concern^d will were to breed so puppies would be plenty.

I, not that I must.

I wrote my father & sisters from Annapolis so lately that they must excuse me now.

Coffin - Brisley - Townsend Chew - & other friends - every body - will believe that I remember them affectionately.

I had a letter prepared for Mr Watson which (from a circumstance) that has lately taken place) I must defer sending by this conveyance
- Say every thing for me to him that gratitude can suggest - & to that best of friends Dr Bailey.
They will readily believe that I have little time to spare. I shall write Col Ludlow a few lines. - there is no Providence - if he suffers. Next time you write me incline a short note to Pop - it will gratify her. if you had ever an esteem for her it will increase when you know with what perfect propriety she has conducted. -

Adieu my friend

brother

everything

Ed Winslow.

This letter is a monster in every respect.

I will not aim at a description of this business.
We cut yesterday with about 120 men - more than a mile thro' a forest hitherto deemed impenetrable - when we emerged from it - there opened a prospect superior to anything in the world I believe. - a perfect view of the immense Bay of Fundy on one side. - a very extensive view of the river St Johns with the Falls - grand Lake & islands - on the other - in front - the Fort which is a beautiful object on a high hill & all the settlements about the town with the ships boats &c in the harbor. - 'twas positively the most magnificent & romantic scene I have ever beheld. - Our town is to be on the slope of this hill - and you shall have a house in't whether you ever see it or not by Jupiter. I shall look in future with extreme contempt on your poetical descriptions of your prying meandering, serpentine purling rills &c. - any man or woman or child that has not a tranquility can make such in a minute - but ~~in~~ viewing a prospect like this an infidel would acknowledge that only God could effect it.

Thank you for the articles you sent me - I am infinitely oblig^d to Tom Coffin for the encouragement about the pine & Boat, & to Littell & Co. You cannot imagine of how much consequence such things are. Should the post be abandoned this fall I am sure I shall not be forgotten. Send me any thing in the world that you can procure without expense.

With
